leader Gerard Batten has received his first Guardian front-page headline the morning after his party's drubbing at the European Elections after being reported for homophobic and racist tweets.

newspaper has given UKIP leader Gerard Batten's openly homophobic and racist tweets the front-page headline the morning after his party's drubbing in the European elections. His Twitter profile now says he is 'secretly gay'. But Batten's admission that he uses social media to 'troll' will raise eyebrows among the many anti-Semites and
