the movie was simultaneously released in tamil and malayalam languages. it was distributed by kda cinemas and had musical score by johnson. it was released on the same day as the hindi movie pehchaan. despite its regional cast, kamal haasan's character had more screen presence in the movie. given the black and white structure of the movie, meena had an advantage when it came to lighting. sukanya, the female lead, has made an entrance that will seem timeless. the only negative that the movie has is the climatic scenes that would have made you laugh at the time of release. it had to be re-shot because the original hero kamal haasan was not available. the movie has excellent songs, especially the song 'kanavan maradhu'. the film was bankrolled by kda cinemas, k. v. rajendran, s. selvaperumal, k. raghavan, k. prasad, s. d. adithyan, t. s. padmanabhan, a. r. krishnan, sudhakar. starring: kamal haasan, meena, gemini ganesan, nagesh, nassar, ramesh, rangathan, neelakantan, raghuram, kanal kannan, crazy mohan, vaiyapuri, idichapuli selvaraj, silambarasan, s. p. balasubramaniam, rani, vaiyapuri, raghuram, kavithaaya kini, prakash, krithika, rambha, kannada prabhakar, madurai meena, sukanya. directed by k. ravikumar, screenplay by seenu ramasamy, producers: g. k. reddy, r. mohan, b. nagraj, cinematography: g. shankar, editing: n. ravikumar, music director: johnson. it's kottayam, a small town in kerala. the poverty is there just like in most small towns. but here poverty is less deadly. you will find more happy faces than in the big cities. there is still space for some happy homes. welcome to the village. also, don't forget to visit the nursing home located on the second floor. make friends with the nurses like madhu and see how they live their lives. i am not going to give you the movie's storyline here. let's find it out through the movie itself.
